With three experienced attorneys, Starr Law Firm, P.C. prides itself in providing a one-stop-shop for their clients' business, estate planning, real estate, tax, probate, and guardianship needs. "Not many firms our size can handle all these areas," said Michael Presbitero. "But we each have our areas of expertise and confer with each other. So, our clients gain the benefits of our combined 60 years of experience and areas of practice."

It isn't unusual for a client to consult with Bert on tax law issues and then realize Laura can help them with their estate planning or Michael can help them with their business – or all three. Because Starr Law Firm is family-owned and operated with strong roots in the community, their clients also benefit from relationships they've cultivated with other professionals.

In this day of internet and computer software, many people attempt to handle legal work themselves. Sadly, by the time they arrive at Starr Law Firm, many have already suffered for it. "Often people try to save money on the front end by handling legal matters themselves, but it almost always ends up costing them more in the long run," Michael said. "We encourage everyone to find counsel they trust and trust them to handle it. DIY is risky for legal matters."
